

Jollyville Fire Department
Open Records/Public Information Requests

All public information requests, other than incident reports, must be submitted in writing and delivered to the fire station due to the reoccurring issues with email and the postal service. This will remove all issues previously encountered with unaccounted for submissions.