

Engineer Daniel Hicks Website Bio

Daniel was homeschooled from 3rd grade and he was in hard labor work from the time he could swing a hammer. He worked as a union ironworker in Austin for 12 years with local 482 and decided to make a change by attending Killeen Fire Academy in 2022. His dream was to be a firefighter his whole life it just came later in life when the time was right.